

PIZZA WORKS

Mini Newsletter – January-February-March 2007

Dear Friends,

February is half gone and hopefully, winter, along with it.. This mini newsletter was so much easier to get in the mail that we are sticking with this format this month.

Pizza Works is still up for sale. We have had a couple people talk to us, but there is nothing definite to report. To answer some of your questions, we would like to sell to someone who wants to keep Pizza Works going with the same quality and pizzas you have come to expect.

Gluten Free Crusts We have had some inquiries about gluten free crusts. I have found a source for 10" (small) crusts, but they would cost about $4-$5 more. If enough of you are interested, our minimum order quantity is small enough we could get them in.

Whole Wheat Crusts We have found a source for Whole Wheat Crusts, but at this point, we don't want to commit to the minimum 15 cases of crusts we would have to order—due to trying to sell the business and limited storage space.

Gourmet Pizza at a Working Man's Price We have changed this to Working Person's price—seems we have offended at least one potential female customer. And if you want a REAL Gourmet price instead, let us know and we can charge you more—it's really easy to add 10% to the price so you feel better about getting the top of the line ingredients that we use.

Remember to help keep your Independent Pizza Restaurant (and other independent businesses here) alive - buy at least 1 pizza a month.

NEW HOURS

Our new hours are: Sun 11AM—8PM, Mon-Thu 10:30AM-8PM,
FRI 10:30AM-9PM, SAT 11AM-9PM

EDNA'S CORNER

Dear Friends of Pizza Works,

I hope this finds all of you happy and healthy after what we all went thru last month. I know I don't want to do it again any time soon. But it did make me appreciate what we have that are forefathers did not have. Enough of that!!

Kids remember to show us your student ID cards for 10% off ANY thing you buy. Treat your parents to a pizza some night to say Thank you for all the things you do for me .

See ya soon Edna
